

Madhvani Injects Shs650m In Scholarships

Madhvani Foundation has unveiled the 11th lot Scholarships worthy Shs650m for academically sound but poor children.

While unveiling the 2014-2015 scholarships at Sheraton Hotel in Kampala on Tuesday, Anthony Butele, Chairman of Madhvani Foundation Scholarship Committee explained that the fund has so far supported over 1,480 Ugandan students in both sciences and arts and technical courses. "Our key aspiration is to support the under privileged students in this country who in turn will be able to perceive the path to

Uganda's future," said Butele. Under the theme: "Achieve your dreams, the foundation paraded some of the beneficiaries who completed. These include Lina Anguparu from Housing Finance, Dr. Charles Lugero, a cardiologist at Mulago and Eng. Ronald Balimwezo from BNK Engineering Services. Henry Kyemba, the acting Board Chairman urged the current beneficiaries to borrow a leaf from the former beneficiaries and aim higher because there are better facilities to make education easier today. (By Moses Ssemakula)
